PICK A STORY AND TELL

4 papers

Chris Boesch will be presenting the research papers in Austria (Automated Mentor Assignment) and Ireland (Events, national scale invite people to self directed learning)

Mastery-Based coaching paper results will still be pending - Canada Innovation and Education

Scotland in August - team based vs individual tournament + mentor assignment

- Difficult to find group members
 - meet beforehand
 - helps the team member - may not be
- individual most efficient

Other Teams' X-Factor who got the most users learnt something about client domain which they don't know business model

articulate number of users, viral growth, pay money, upgrade

our story

Focus on end users (client, students)

Research papers

tournament

RP doing their own development with SingPath

- currently working to prepare for the upcoming term

- greater than 50% chance they will be able to roll out for 40 classes
